Welcome...

All of us at the San Francisco Symphony are honored that the Association of California Symphony Orchestras has chosen us to host its 34th Annual Conference. I'd like to welcome you to our city and to this great program in which delegates share expertise and celebrate music.

One of the ideas that we should constantly communicate is that concert music is for everyone, that it's not simply a pastime for the privileged. In that spirit, I want to emphasize how important it is that orchestras from across California—orchestras large and small—each year set aside time to gather, pool mental resources, and examine ways to bring music to our audiences and our audiences to the music. We are in this together, and the more we learn from each other—about what to do and what not to do, about ways to manage, ways to dream, and ways to spread the word about music—the more we'll be doing for the quality of life in our communities.

I wish you a productive week of business. Welcome to San Francisco.

John D. Goldman, president
San Francisco Symphony

On behalf of the ACSO board of directors, I welcome you to the 34th Annual Conference, “Chords of Harmony.”

As always, this Conference provides us an opportunity to reconnect with our colleagues and friends and commiserate about our mutual challenges. The ACSO board has worked hard throughout the year to continue to improve the Association’s services to the membership. ACSO’s staff always stands ready to respond to your call. With the leadership of ACSO board member and Conference chair, Camille Reed, a variety of stimulating seminars and practical sessions targeted at all members of your organization have been developed for this Conference. These meetings will stimulate lively interchange among us and provide the important technical assistance we need.

I urge you to take full advantage of the Conference offerings these next few days, especially the ancillary events that provide an opportunity to renew acquaintances and to meet some new colleagues.

I wish you all a satisfying and invigorating Conference experience.

Kind regards,

Jim Medvitz, president

Latin up the Season!

PONCHO SANCHEZ
For the 1st time symphony charts!
Grammy Award Winner!
"The triumph of the Playboy Jazz Festival was the closing set of Poncho Sanchez, he made no attempt to cap everybody, he just let his band kill the people in the usual way. It’s a real working band, the Count Basie Orchestra of Latin jazz..."
Hollywood Reporter

EDDIE PALMIERI
7 time Grammy Award Winner!
"This is music so vital and joyous...a totally celebratory sound, bouncing, shuffling, weaving and grooving along on a beat so mesmeric and soul-wrenchingly right that you want it to go on for ever."
Time Out - London

Jazz it Up!

EDDIE DANIELS
"Eddie Daniels combines elegance and virtuosity in a way that makes me remember Artur Rubinstein. He is a thoroughly well-bred demon."
Leonard Bernstein

BRUBECK BROTHERS QUARTET
Tanglewood Triumph!
"The audience (of 18,000) was on its feet - Brubeck’s tribute to the Pops is graceful; ... it is easily and unpretentiously assimilative, and dedicated both to musical quality and entertainment value."
The Boston Globe

Symphonic Survival Skills: Extraordinary Requests in Extraordinary Times
Monterey I

Have you ever faced a seemingly impossible situation that tests every negotiation and resource skill you possess? Orchestra managers have to take on the seemingly impossible time after time, but occasionally events lead us to a near-catastrophic climax that makes us wonder whether we, or our organization, will survive. Where can we find support in these times? How does one transform a crisis into an opportunity or a change for the better?

Catherine Barker-Henwood, executive director, Berkeley Symphony

10:45 am - 12 pm
Does your Board have Enron-itis?
Carmel II

Is your Board nervous about those off-balance sheet derivative transactions? Are your patrons concerned that your E.D. has lost control of all of those nasty little S.P.E.3's? Does your finance staff jump every time someone fires up the shredders? Do you think you saw one of your auditors taking the fifth on C-Span last January? Enron and your Symphony are worlds apart in the presentation of financial reports, but as a patron, director or donor it still helps for you to be able to read key information in the financial reports that portray your orchestra. This panel will show you simple ways to get good information from Balance Sheets, Income Statements, Statements of Cash Flow and most importantly ... the notes!

Jed Coffin, finance director, Santa Rosa Symphony
Therese Courtney, CPA, Hayashi & Wayland
Michele Hassid, CPA, Eckhoff Accountancy Corporation

10:45 am - 12 pm
The Sound of Money: Special Event Fundraising
Monterey I

Dynamic and dedicated volunteers orchestrate annual fundraising events that are fun, lucrative and innovative. You'll be amazed at the wealth of creativity in our midst as we highlight some of the most successful current projects. Better yet, you can tailor these great ideas to your own needs to secure needed dollars and wider publicity.

SUNDAY, August 4, 2002

10 am - 12 pm  Barbary Coast Trail Walking Tour
Wear comfortable walking shoes. Explore the haunts of the legendary Barbary Coast with Daniel Bacon, founder and creator of the Barbary Coast Trail. On this special two-hour walking tour, we envision San Francisco as it was when the Gold Rushers arrived here in 1849. Dan will regale us with stories of the days when the Barbary Coast was infamous for its bawdy fleshpots and Shanghai dens. We’ll also learn how San Francisco got its name and how the City reshaped its shoreline to become the greatest city on the West Coast.
Meet in hotel lobby.

2 - 4:30 pm  Stern Grove Festival
Merola singers
If you’re staying over, join other AGSO Conference delegates at the Stern Grove Festival. We have special table seating reserved. The concert starts at 2 pm, but arrive by 12 pm for your spot. Bring a lunch or buy one there. The Grove is a beautiful outdoor setting - afternoons can be quite cool; wear appropriate clothing.
You are on your own for transportation. The Grove is at 19th Avenue and Sloat Blvd. Use the K or M Muni and exit at Sloat Blvd.
