

Nuri Kye, Director of Development, Marin Symphony

Nuri Kye is Director of Development at the Marin Symphony. Previously, she managed telefunding campaigns for the San Francisco Opera and, as a donor database consultant, worked with the San Francisco Art Institute, Stern Grove Music Festival, San Francisco Botanical Garden, American Red Cross (Bay Area Chapter), and UCSF Benioff Children's Hospitals Foundation.

A lapsed musician, Nuri grew up in the violin and soprano sections of numerous orchestras and choirs in her hometown of Idaho Falls, ID. Her passion for arts administration was born at Cal Performances as Public Relations Assistant during her undergraduate years at UC Berkeley.
