About Music@Menlo

Founded in 2003 by Artistic Directors David Finckel and Wu Han, Music@Menlo brings many of the world's leading classical musicians to the Bay Area each summer for a three week festival, with public concerts, lectures, and a major training institute for emerging and pre-professional musicians. In addition to the festival and institute activities concentrated in the summer, Music@Menlo also offers a series of year-round events and activities. All of the festival's programming provides an array of opportunities for audiences to connect with classical music in a learning-rich environment. While Music@Menlo largely functions as an independent organization, legally it is a program of Menlo School, an independent, coeducational college preparatory day school located in Atherton, CA. Please learn more at www.musicatmenlo.org.

Music@Menlo does not discriminate on the basis of race, religious creed, color, national origin, ancestry, gender, sexual orientation, handicap, disability or age in any of its policies, procedures or practices. This nondiscriminatory policy covers admission and access to, and treatment and employment in, the festival's programs and activities. Inquiries regarding this policy may be directed to the festival office at 650-330-2030.
