

ACSO Most Valuable Player (MVP) Volunteer

DESCRIPTION

Applications are being accepted now through Friday, May 14, 2021 for ACSO's 26th Annual Most Valuable Player (MVP) Volunteer Awards. The awards are designed to give recognition to a few of the hundreds of dedicated, hardworking and committed volunteers that orchestras depend on every day.

The MVP Volunteer Award is not a competition, but an opportunity for your extraordinary volunteer to be recognized publicly. An administrative staff leader of an ACSO member organization may submit one completed nomination form, which constitutes the sole basis of the award being given. Nominations may be made for an individual volunteer, a volunteer committee, or a volunteer organization (such as a league or guild). ACSO will publicly announce the award winners in July 2021 and winners will be presented at ACSO's Annual meeting during the 2021 Annual Conference Online (Aug 2-13).

APPLICATION

Narrative Questions

1. Description of Project, Service, or Achievement: Give some examples or be descriptive about what this individual or group has done to uplift or build your organization. What kind of work has he/she done to make him/her stand out? Your words will be used during the awards presentation, so please be thoughtful. (250 words)
2. Reason for your nomination: Think about what makes this person a good volunteer and what their contributions have meant to your organization. (250 words)

Include a high-resolution photo of the nominee.
